SIR,

Re presentation fr [illegible] s[illegible]la at Sri [illegible] Te[illegible]

With reference to [illegible] the above subject, I have the [illegible] letter No.H.37/38-39 dated 21-1-1938, receiv[illegible] missioner, Mysore District, [illegible] :-

2. The Vedanta Sanskrit [illegible] Venkataramaswamy Temple at [illegible] ing a very useful purpose. It [illegible] the local and Purussil [illegible] the cost of maintenance [illegible] being met from the temple funds.

3. The existing scale of [illegible] Adhyaksha. [illegible] other teachers, one Upadhyaya." [illegible]

No.376-7/Mu.48-38-39 dated 2-4-1938 [illegible] scale of expenditure of the temple mentioned [illegible] 37-38 dated 10/18-11-1937, [illegible] Patnasala was allowed. The Committee of the temple have stated that it is not desirable to spend [illegible] the Patnasala from the temple funds and that [illegible] extra cost on account of enlargement of [illegible] Muzrai Funds. As regards the location [illegible] building, they have stated that the existing arrangement [illegible]

the Pathasala in the temple is more convenient for their supervision as well as to the students, and that as the temple is in need of more urgent repairs, the question of providing a separate building to the Pathasala may be taken up for consideration when the finances of the temple improve.

The Deputy Commissioner, while agreeing with the Dharmadarsis, reports that both the questions may be taken up when the funds required for the urgent repairs of the temple are fully met.

4. I understand that some of the teachers of the Pathasala are Pandits of great learning. The existing scale of pay, which was fixed seven years back, is very low as compared to the minimum pay of Rs 25 of the Pandits of similar institutions, like the Sri Chamarajendra Veda Maha Pathasala, Bangalore, and the Sanskrit Colleges at Mysore and Bangalore. In the interest of the Pathasala and also of its efficiency, I am of opinion that the pay of each Pandit may be enhanced as follows, the cost being met from the Reserve amount of Rs 2,309 provided in the revised scale.

Adhyaksha	from	Rs 25-2½-30	to Rs 25-2½-35.
5 other Teachers, each	"	" 15-2½-20	" " 15-2½-25.

I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to my proposal.

5. The question of providing a separate building to the Pathasala may be deferred for the present, as stated by the Dharmadarsis and the Deputy Commissioner.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.
